

Library News for June, 2021

Submitted by GPFS Music Librarian Cheryl Thompson-Merrill

Flute Fair Raffle Purpose and Winners!

The money raised from the GPFS Annual Flute Fair Raffle is used to help support the GPFS Study Grant Program that provides a year's worth of private flute lessons to several financially disadvantaged students. It also helps GPFS keep admission and membership fees low.

Help Support GPFS Scholarships for Youth and Other

Activities: Please consider making a one-time or monthly donation to GPFS. Even a small monthly donation of $5 to $10 significantly supports the GPFS mission!

Consider donating here: Donate

Your Help Growing the

Library: There is still opportunity for you to help grow our free music lending library by encouraging members to donate items. We have a new "Sheet Music Wish List" as an option for selecting your donation.

Our virtual raffle prizes included gift certificates to Canter Flute Repair, Carolyn Nussbaum Music Company, Flute Center of New York, Flute World and Windsmith Music.

Participants at Flute Fair were automatically entered into the raffle, but extra tickets were available for just one dollar per ticket.

Winners of this year's raffle were: Judy Fischbach, Diana Fisher, Deborah Johnson, Heidi Jones, Amelia Lukas, Frank Mathew, Tara Planas and Carla Wilson. Congratulations! Thank you to all who participated in our first virtual Flute Fair and a special "thank you" to all who purchased extra tickets.

The Special raffle prize was a coaching session with Dr. Emily Stanek or Rebecca Olson Towers. Thank you to these excellent teachers for generously donating their services! The winner of the coaching session was Tara Planas. Congratulations, Tara!