

A Message from the GPFS Librarian – New Library Donations

To view all of our music available for check out and free delivery and return, go to the GPFS Lending Library Webpage

If you are looking for some light-hearted fun, check out the latest additions to the GPFS library. BJ Nicoletti has generously donated some popular and jazz pieces that will get your toes tapping and bring a smile to your lips (but not while playing ☺). Music from Gershwin, Duke Ellington, Henry Mancini and Jethro Tull are just a few of the new pieces. And with CD accompaniment, it is the next best thing to rehearsing with the band.

Looking ahead to the near distant future: Need a piece for a church service? Check out Sacred Solos for the Flute, volume 1 and 2.

See the detailed list of new pieces below:

- Ballads, Playalong Solos for Flute, (CD included)
- Bluesy Flutey, for flute and piano, by George Peter Tingley
- CATS, Selection for flute and piano, by Andrew Lloyd Webber
- Jethro Tull Solos, as played by Ian Anderson, transcribed by Jeff Rona
- Lennon and McCartney, 60 Greatest Hits, for flute alone, Hal Leonard
- The Lord of the Rings, Instrumental Solos, (CD included)
- The Music of Duke Ellington (CD included), arranged by Tony Esposito
- The Music of George Gershwin, Plus One (CD included)
- The Music of Henry Mancini, Plus One, (CD included)
- Movie and TV Themes, Playalong solos for Flute, (CD included), Hal Leonard
- Sacred Solos, volume 1 and 2, Cathedral Music Press
- Selections from CATS, for flute alone, by Andrew Lloyd Webber
- Selections from Les Miserables, Schonberg, for flute alone

Please consider making a donation to the GPFS library. If you want ideas, you can consider selecting something off our current Wishlist which has a focus on expanding our library's modern music.